LAST NIGHT'S PERFORMANCE.

"Nick of the Woods" was given again last night, for the Curry's benefit, to a well-filled house and well-pleased audience. This aboriginal drama improves on acquaintance, and was even more enthusiastically received last night than on its first presentation. And then it was played even better than on the first night, which is paying it a high compliment. The amateurs had apparently got over the nervousness attendant upon first stage appearances, and last night played like veterans of the drama. As a whole, the performance was better than most of the professional entertainments that we have had in Carson during the past few months, and this was the general verdict last night. All worked faithfully and carefully to give the play in first-class style, and they succeeded beyond the expectations of their most sanguine friends. In yesterday's notice of the play we failed to mention the excellent manner in which the rather unimportant part of "Abel Doe" was given. It was neatly dressed, the lines were well read, the walk was Indian to life, and altogether it was a creditable piece of acting. Seldom is a piece more carefully and successfully put upon the stage than has been this one, and it truly deserved the hearty reception given it by the people of Carson.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge King presiding.
State of Nevada vs. Isaac McConnell—4 indictments. McConnell being absent, time for arraignment was continued until 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. E. E. Hixon vs. Pixley & McConnell. On motion of Robert M. Clarke, Court ordered the default of McConnell to be entered against him.

Geo. Mathews vs. his creditors. Discharged in insolvency, by order of the Court.

J. P. Winnie vs. his creditors. Demurrer overruled.

M. M. Gaige vs. W. D. Torreyson, et als. Plaintiff allowed ten days additional time to amend complaint.

M. M. Gaige vs. E. F. Gibson et als. Same order as in above case.

State of Nevada vs. Isaac McConnell and R. F. Pixley—4 joint indictments for embezzlement. Defendants were arraigned and indictments read to them. Dickson, counsel for Pixley, and Ellis, counsel for McConnell. By consent, time to plead was continued until Saturday, April 6th, 1879.

Court adjourned until April 4th.

A FINE PICTURE.—Lussier & Hill have just finished a very fine picture of "Jim," the dog so well known to every habitue of the Ormsby house. So natural is the picture that one momentarily expects to see it beg for lunch, as "Jim" is wont to do.

APRIL FOOL.—The school children yesterday strictly observed the time honored custom of fooling every one they encountered, and they relished the successes of their tricks as much as we old fogies did when we were young.

MR. J. W. WILKES, a professional actor, is entitled to the credit of having drilled the "Nick of the Woods" amateurs to that degree of perfection which gave our theatre goers such an evening of pleasant entertainment.

GOOD RAIN.—The rain of Monday night and yesterday has been very beneficial. It has brought out the new, bright, green grass in most of the gardens in the city. The mint yard, especially, looks very beautiful.

THE BLISS MANSION.—Work has begun on the elevated lot opposite the residence of D. A. Bender, for the erection of D. L. Bliss' new mansion. It is to be the handsomest residence in this city, when completed.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The case of John Kelly, bankrupt, petitioning for the removal of the assignee of the estate, occupied the attention of this Court all of yesterday. Petition granted.

COWING & ZABRISKIE MINE.—The ledge of this mine is now nearly ten feet wide, and very rich. An assay of the rock was made yesterday, showing it to carry $710 83 in gold and silver.

EAR-RING FOUND.—Col. Hall, at Moore & Parker's Saloon, found an ear-ring in the hall, lost by a lady who attended the temperance lectures. The same can be had by applying for it.

REHEARSAL.—The first rehearsal of the "Color Guard," under the direction of Mr. Will H. Gunn, takes place at the Opera House on Thursday evening.

AN OLD MAN.—It is said that there is an aged Mexican living in one of the Mexican hotels in the back slums, who was 105 years old last Thursday.

W. P. PRESCOTT, assayer of the mint, is still keeping company with his persistent enemy, rheumatism, at the Genoa Hot Springs.

THE STAGES daily leave this city loaded with passengers for Bodie, but the incoming travel from the south is very light.

STOCKS.—The stock market remains unchanged. No advances or declines sufficient to make one rich or poor.

THE CLOSING TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

Dr. D. Banks McKenzie delivered his farewell temperance lecture at Moore & Parker's Hall last night to an undiminished and interested audience. His remarks were addressed to the young men of this city, in which he exhorted them to abstain from the deceiving and ruinous cup while they yet possessed the power to do so. He related incidents that had come under his personal observations of the deleterious consequences that followed in the wake of tipping, or moderate drinking, that were perfectly horrible to listen to. He also gave some good and sensible advice as to how the "Reform Clubs" which have been organized here should be conducted, and if his suggestions in this respect are followed out, the cold water clubs of Carson will thrive like green bay trees, and bear fruit that many a mother and father will be thankful for. Dr. McKenzie also showed up the evils that result from the use of wine and liquors in the preparation of food for the table, and strikingly illustrated the sad consequences that may even arise from that practice. During his brief sojourn in our midst Dr. McKenzie has created a revolution in the appetites of some men astounding even to the most sanguine cold water advocates; and he is the first temperance lecturer that ever visited this city who had the power to stimulate such an enthusiasm as now exists. Since his advent here the principal topic of conversation is the "Temperance Question." The Doctor leaves for the East to-night, but will be out here again in May, when he will take in Virginia on his reforming cruise. He has begun a good work in this community, and it is greatly to be hoped that his earnest and difficult labors are not lost, but that they will reap the much needed and wished for harvest. At the close of the lecture the audience was addressed by General T. D. Edwards, Hon. Thomas Stephens, of Virginia, and others who know how it is themselves.

WHAT DID IT MEAN?—A little after 6 o'clock yesterday morning a man very scantily attired, was seen to emerge from a residence in the lower part of the city, at a very hurried pace, in fact, it may be said that he flew. The impetus of his speed was another man following closely after him. Both, the fugitive and the follower, seemed to be in dead earnest; it was no race for fun. They took the Warm Springs road, the fugitive panting like a chased deer and the follower giving utterance to expressions of the most profound hatred. Since this nothing has been seen or heard of the two individuals. What it all meant is, as yet, hidden in mystery.

VAOS SKIPPED.—The five young tramps who were found guilty of vagrancy, and permitted to depart on their own recognizance, on Monday, turned up missing yesterday morning when they were called to receive their sentence. It is not at all likely that they lingered long in this town after they left the Police Court room. They will not be missed much, and there will be no bench warrant issued for them, as they can do much good on the outside by letting others of their ilk know what a tough place this town is for tramps and bums, and thereby rid us of their undesirable presence for all time to come.

OPIUM SMOKING.—In the face of the determination of the Sheriff and his subordinate officers to break up the fearful vice of opium smoking, there are numerous white men and women still frequenting the dens where the drug is kept for sale, and in these pestiferous hovels these people with white skins place themselves on a level with the barbaric Chinese brutes. It is true that those whites who visit the opium dens are social outcasts, yet it is worth the while to save them from this worst and most degrading of all vices.

A WHITE WOMAN LIVING WITH INDIANS.—One of Muldon's teamsters came into town yesterday, and states, as an absolute fact, that a white woman is living with a band of Indians near Camp Nye, about a quarter of a mile from Frank Thorn's ranch. He says that he has seen the woman in this city, but never knew her name. She assumes all the habits of the Indian, and appears to be perfectly contented.

SCARLET FEVER.—The scarlet fever, it is said, has made its appearance in this town. Parents cannot be too careful to use every precaution to protect their little ones from this dreaded malady. Physicians say that it is rather too late in the season however, for the fever to make much headway.

MISS ADA HUNGERFORD, sister of Mrs. John Mackay, has been married to an Italian Count. Not one of the impecunious sort, but one who is a millionaire, and who lives in a palace formerly owned by the King of Italy. How is that for high!

SWIFT'S SPRINGS.—In about a week ex-Sheriff Swift will decide whether he will improve his springs and erect buildings there, to take the place of the State Prison Springs, as a place of bathing and resort.

GONE BELOW.—Mr. Thomas Higgins, one of the oldest attaches of the Carson mint, went west to San Francisco last evening, and will remain there until his services may again be called into requisition here.

HUNTERS have hung up their shot guns and powder flasks and shot pouches, and will now give the wild feathered tribes a respite for the next five months.
